

Clothing & Equipment List

The following is the recommended clothing and equipment list. Please be aware that Mountain Temperatures can be extreme, ranging from the low 90's to the low teens. Layering items of clothing is the recommended method of preparing for changing mountain temperatures. Visit our website at www.thousandpinesoutdoored.com to see a 3 day forecast for weather. There are a variety of weather websites you can visit for a longer weather forecast. It is suggested that you check the weather to prepare your student before they leave for science school. Please mark all clothing and personal belongings with your students name and the school they are attending with.
